Tähelepanu! Tegemist on välisvõrgust saabunud kirjaga. Tundmatu saatja korral palume linke ja faile mitte avada. Dear Colleagues,
We are pleased to announce that the International Trade Council has launched its newly redesigned website, featuring expert profiles, publications, news, articles, events, books, and much more.

Explore our redesigned website:

If you're interested in global trade intelligence, international market data, importer and exporter information, or identifying new business opportunities, we also have a range of powerful data platforms available. To learn more or arrange a demonstration of global trade data, you can book a call with Cherian Skariah here:

Ministry of Economic Affairs and Communications - Upcoming Awards Program
Finally, a reminder that our annual Go Global Awards and international networking program will take place in London on 26-28 November 2026. If you're interested in attending and would like further information, please let me know. (If you've already registered or otherwise informed us - please disregard :))

We look forward to connecting with you!

Warm regards,

Daniel Komla Sr Trade Commissioner International Trade Council
