3rd WHO European Autumn School on Quality of Child and Adolescent Mental Health
26th October & 7th December (online) 2026
2-5 November 2026, in person, Athens, Greece

Dear Ms Söber,

We are delighted to announce the 3rd WHO European Autumn School on Quality of Child and Adolescent Mental Health Care is scheduled to be held in October - December 2026 with two online sessions (26 October & 7 December) and a four day in person intensive course in Athens, Greece (2-5 November). We would like to invite your country to nominate two participants for this upcoming event.

This event is jointly organized by the WHO Athens Office on Quality of Care and Patient Safety, in collaboration with the WHO Regional Office for Europe Mental Health and Well-being team.

The 3rd WHO European Autumn School on Quality of Child and Adolescent Mental Health Care is designed for young professionals working in the field of mental health in Ministries of Health or in key national mental health institutes, and will offer an interactive exploration of advancements in child and adolescent mental health quality, featuring case studies, and insights from experts. The working language will be English.

Nominated participants should be actively working on issues related to mental health, and have a good understanding of core mental health issues.

Please submit your nomination, including the candidate's personal CV of two pages and contact details at your earliest convenience and preferably no later than 30th September 2026. Kindly address your response to Dr João Breda, Head of the WHO Athens Quality of Care Office (rodriguesdasilvabred@who.int) and Dr Ledia Lazeri (lazeril@who.int), Regional Advisor for Mental Health, and copy Dr Jennifer Hall (jhall@who.int).

We thank you in advance for your cooperation and look forward to hearing from you.

Sincerely yours,

Dr Ledia Lazēri
