INVITATION

To whom it may concern,

It is with great pleasure that we invite you and the representation of your unit to the International Scientific Conference “Mountain Warfare Environment-Experiences and Perspectives 2025” hosted by the General Tadeusz Kościuszko Military University of Land Forces (AWL) and the NATO Mountain Warfare Centre of Excellence (NATO MW COE) in order to participate or give the lecture during this conference about your experience and perspectives in the area of the preparation or operation of the troops to in the mountain and cold weather conditions. This conference will be held from the 3rd to the 5th of June 2025 in Szklarska Poręba (Poland).

The conference will cover various aspects of mountain activity, with a particular focus on the following topics:

1. Analysis of contemporary and future conditions of conducting operations in mountainous terrain with consideration of low temperatures.
2. Exchange of experience on mobility and survival in the mountain environment.
3. Discussion of modern technologies and innovations that can be used in the mountains in both military and civilian contexts.
4. Exchange of experience in mountain training in international training centers.
5. Presentation of procedures, changes and experiences in the uniformed services regarding operations in the mountain combat environment.
6. Organization of mountain rescue operations.
