I hope this email finds you well.
I am writing to kindly follow up on my previous email regarding our study for UEFA on sport and EU Cohesion Policy.
We would be very grateful if you or a relevant colleague could share your insights and experience with us. We would be happy to arrange a short online interview at your convenience, or alternatively, to send a few questions by email if that would be easier.
Thank you very much for your time and consideration. Please do not hesitate to let me know if you need any further information.

<info@rahendusministeerium.ee> Objet : Study for UEFA on sport and EU Cohesion Policy: request for a 30-minute interview

Dear Sir or Madam,

I am a consultant at Technopolis Group. We are carrying out a study commissioned by UEFA on how sport is integrated into EU Cohesion Policy in 2021-2027, and on the opportunities for the 2028-2034 period.

As part of this study, we are preparing a short case study on sport and the green transition: energy renovation and climate adaptation of sport facilities, active mobility, and sport events.

Estonia's programme documents give visibility to cycling infrastructure (urban cycling networks in Tallinn, Tartu and Pärnu, and rural cycling and walking paths), while the sport-related projects financed are mostly small-scale.

We would like to understand why, and how sport and physical activity are treated in the programme. Could you please forward this request to the unit responsible for the 2021-2027 Cohesion Policy programme (managing authority, korraldusasutus)?

We would be grateful for a 30-minute online conversation, ideally this week, at a time that suits you. We can adapt to your language.

Thank you very much for considering this request.

Kind regards,

Pamela Agboyibo
