Invitation to the Tallinn Supply Security and Defence Expo 2025

Dear Mr Jaworski

In recent years, the world has faced series of challenges. These turbulent times have underscored the importance of resilience, cooperation, and innovation, particularly within the defense and supply chain sectors. The collaboration between governments, industries, and international partners becomes vital in ensuring stability and preparedness for future uncertainties.

The Tallinn Supply, Security and Defence Expo 2025 comes at a crucial moment, offering an opportunity to come together, share insights, and develop solutions that will contribute to a more secure and resilient global framework.

The Expo, scheduled for May 14–15, 2025 is taking place in Tallinn Bekker Port. It is organized by Exponaut OÜ with a focus on strengthening defense capabilities and securing critical supply chains. The event aims to create a platform for strategic discussions, technological advancements, and high-level networking. By bringing together key stakeholders, the Expo seeks to enhance partnerships and drive progress within the sector.

The Expo will gather influential figures from Germany, Estonia, Poland, Lithuania, Latvia, Finland, Sweden, and other NATO and allied nations. Your presence would be valuable in promoting collaboration between the defense industries of our nations.

The programme will feature:

- Strategic Discussions on defense supply security and resilience
- Industry Showcases showcasing innovative defense technologies
- High-Level Networking opportunities with government and industry leaders

Kindly let the organizers know if you will be able to attend in order to arrange a potential speech.

For any inquiries or further information, please feel free to contact Mr Madis Laas, CEO of Exponaut OÜ (SSD Expo Organizer) at +372 5623 3933 or via email at madis.laas@creativeunion.com.
