Invitation

Estonian Military Academy Centre for War and Disaster Medicine in cooperation with the Estonian Surgeons Association organizes the course „Advanced Trauma Life Support (ATLS)“. The course will take place on May 8–10, 2024.

We hereby invite you to participate in the course as students, and we also hope to discuss further opportunities for cooperation.

Location:

Estonian Military Academy's (EMA) Center for War and Disaster Medicine,
Riia street 12, Tartu, Estonia.

Logistics:

EMA will provide free meals (breakfast and lunch in DFAC). Accommodation will be provided free of charge in the EMA dormitory Rebase street 9, Tartu. Transportation from the accommodation to the course venue and back is guaranteed throughout the course.

Your contact during the entire course is OR-7 Jana Juul, cell: +372 5886 1169, jana.juul@mil.ee.

Sincerely,

Neve Vendt
