Job Description for European Delegated Prosecutors

Dear Mr PARMA,

Please find attached the Job Description for European Delegated Prosecutors ("EDPs") as endorsed by the College of the European Public Prosecutor's Office. You will find attached the English original as well as a courtesy translation.

For the sake of clarity and consistency, such Job Description expresses at high level the main duties and responsibilities of European Delegated Prosecutors.

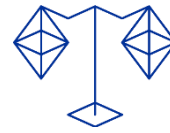

Due to the different national provisions in criminal procedural law, there are national variations in the prosecutors' tasks. The duties and responsibilities in this Job Description are generic and do not include such specific requirements.

The Job Description may assist Member States in the national procedures leading to the nomination of candidates for the function of EDPs.

Please do not hesitate to contact our services via EU-EPPO-HR@ec.europa.eu for information or clarification you may need in this regard.

Sincerely yours,

Laura KÖVESI
European Chief Prosecutor
