Congratulations

Dear Prosecutor General Asi,

On behalf of Eurojust, I have the great pleasure of congratulating you as Estonia's new Prosecutor General. I have no doubt that your professional background and wide expertise will be instrumental in steering the prosecution service forward.

As the EU Agency for Criminal Justice Cooperation, Eurojust sits at the heart of cross-border judicial collaboration within the European Union as well as with partners beyond. Our mission is to help close the security chain and to see across international jurisdictions that law enforcement work can lead to judicial results by having criminals convicted and assets frozen or recovered. In this crucial work, I am grateful for the expertise and commitment of the Estonian Desk at Eurojust, headed by Ms Piret Paukštys.

To elaborate more on our operational work – including on our role in the European Union's judicial response to the war in Ukraine in which Estonia's contributions have been so important – I would be honoured to welcome and host you on a working visit to Eurojust. Should you kindly accept, please note that my office (president@eurojust.europa.eu) remains available to coordinate a mutually convenient date.

With this in mind, Dear Prosecutor General, let me wish you every success in the important work that lies ahead and I look much forward to an opportunity of meeting you.

Yours sincerely,
