Confirmation letter

The Estonian Ministry of Culture hereby confirms that the vocal ensemble Vox Clamantis was founded in Estonia in 1996 and has since been actively engaged in cultural activities worldwide. Vox Clamantis is one of the most influential and internationally renowned vocal ensembles, regularly collaborating with Estonian composers such as Arvo Pärt and Erkki-Sven Tüür, as well as with the prestigious record label ECM.

The activities of Vox Clamantis have been annually funded from the state budget of the Republic of Estonia.

Yours sincerely

Merilin Piipuu
Secretary General
