Dear Captain,

On behalf of the Hellenic Army Academy, I have the honor to invite you and your esteemed Academy to participate in the International Conference on Military Leadership, "Athena's Wisdom," to be held in Athens, Greece, from 4 to 6 May 2026, and to contribute to the conference as a speaker, should you so wish and share you invaluable experience.

In this context and through you, we would welcome the nomination, of officer-scholars from your Academy to participate in the conference and contribute as lecturers.

The conference aims to provide a high-level forum for the exchange of ideas, research findings, and best practices related to leadership in military organizations, with particular emphasis on the challenges of change, transformation, and leadership development in contemporary and future operational environments.

The conference is addressed to officers, cadets, scholars, as well as representatives from the private sector. On this occasion, we would be particularly honoured to welcome your third- and fourth-year cadets to participate, as we firmly believe that the knowledge generated through the lectures and workshops will be highly beneficial to their leadership development.

In addition, please find attached all the details regarding the conference.

Availing myself of this opportunity, I would like to thank you in advance for your kind consideration and to extend my sincere regards.

Sincerely Yours,

*Vasileios Lampropoulos
Major General*
