

Chief of the Italian Navy

Prot. n. 235

Rome, 4TH APR 2025

Dear Commander,

within the framework of the cooperation between our Navies, I am pleased to bring to your attention the forthcoming SEAFUTURE 25, which will take place in La Spezia between 29th September and 2nd October 2025.

The event, in its 9th edition, is organised by an enterprise of private companies with the support of the Italian Navy and represents a valuable opportunity to discuss maritime issues with international experts, exploiting development of new capabilities and technologies, and meeting manufactures, leading companies and stakeholders of the maritime domain.

It is therefore a great honour for me to invite you together with your partner and one staff officer to SEAFUTURE 25.

My staff is ready to provide you with any information you might need at the following PoC: international.relations@marina.difesa.it.

Looking forward to meeting you soon.

Sincerely yours

Admiral Enrico CREDENDINO

Commodore

Ivo VÄRK
