CHAPTER 2

INVESTMENT PROTECTION

ARTICLE 2.1

Scope

1. This Agreement applies to:

- (a) covered investments; and
- (b) investors of a Party in respect of a covered investment, as regards any measure adopted or maintained by a Party and affecting the operation of such investment.

2. This Agreement applies to measures adopted or maintained by¹:

- (a) central, regional or local governments and authorities; and
- (b) non-governmental bodies in the exercise of powers delegated by central, regional or local governments or authorities.

¹ For greater certainty, the entities listed under points (a) and (b) of paragraph 2 can adopt or maintain a measure by instructing or directing other entities with regard to the measure.

3. Articles 2.3 and 2.4 do not apply to:
- (a) audio-visual services;
 - (b) national maritime cabotage¹; and
 - (c) domestic and international air transport services, whether scheduled or non-scheduled, and services directly related to the exercise of traffic rights, other than:
 - (i) aircraft repair and maintenance services;
 - (ii) the selling and marketing of air transport services;
 - (iii) computer reservation system (CRS) services; and
 - (iv) groundhandling services.

¹ Without prejudice to the scope of activities which may be considered as cabotage under the relevant national legislation, national maritime cabotage under this Chapter covers transportation of passengers or goods between a port or point located in Indonesia or in a Member State of the Union and another port or point located also in Indonesia including its continental shelf, archipelagic waters and exclusive economic zone or also in that same Member State of the Union, including on its continental shelf, as provided for in the United Convention on the Law of the Sea, done at Montego Bay on 10 December 1982, and traffic originating and terminating in the same port or point located in Indonesia or in a Member State of the Union.

4. For greater certainty and subject to paragraph 6, a Party's decision not to grant, renew or maintain a subsidy

(a) in the absence of any specific commitment under law or contract to grant, renew, or maintain that subsidy; or

(b) in accordance with any terms or conditions attached to the granting, renewal or maintenance of the subsidy, shall not constitute a breach of this Agreement.

5. Nothing in this Agreement shall be construed as preventing a Party from discontinuing the granting of a subsidy or requesting its reimbursement, where such action has been ordered by one of its competent authorities listed in Annex 2-B (Competent Authorities Mentioned in Article 2.1(5)), or as requiring that Party to compensate the investor therefor.

6. Articles 2.3 and 2.4 do not apply to subsidies granted by the Parties¹ and to government procurement.

7. This Agreement shall not apply to any dispute between the contracting parties to a government procurement contract arising from a breach of a provision thereto.

¹ For the Union, "subsidy" includes "State aid" as defined in Union law. For Indonesia, "subsidy" includes investment incentive as regulated by Indonesian law.

ARTICLE 2.2

Investment and regulatory measures

1. The Parties reaffirm their right to regulate within their territories to achieve legitimate policy objectives, such as the protection of public health, safety, the environment including the tackling of climate change, public morals, social and consumer protection, privacy and data protection, sustainable development and the promotion and protection of cultural diversity.
2. The provisions of this Agreement shall not be interpreted as a commitment from a Party that it will not change its legal and regulatory framework, including in a manner that may negatively affect the operation of covered investments or an investor's expectations of profits.

ARTICLE 2.3

National treatment

1. Each Party shall accord to investors of the other Party and to covered investments, as regards their operation in its territory, treatment no less favourable than the treatment it accords, in like situations, to its own investors and their investments.
2. The treatment to be accorded by a Party pursuant to paragraph 1 means, with respect to a government of a subnational region of Indonesia, treatment no less favourable than the most favourable treatment accorded in like situations, by that government to investors, and to investments of investors, of that subnational region.

3. The treatment to be accorded by a Party pursuant to paragraph 1 means, with respect to a government of or in a Member State of the Union, treatment no less favourable than the most favourable treatment accorded in like situations, by that government to investors of that Member State and to their investments in its territory.

ARTICLE 2.4

Most favoured nation treatment

1. Each Party shall accord to investors of the other Party and to covered investments, as regards their operation in its territory, treatment no less favourable than the treatment it accords, in like situations, to investors and investments of any third country.

2. Notwithstanding paragraph 1, a Party shall not be obliged to extend to investors of the other Party or to their covered investments the benefits of any treatment accorded to investors and investments of any third country pursuant to any international investment treaty or other trade agreement in force or signed prior to the date of entry into force of this Agreement.

3. Paragraph 1 shall not be construed to oblige a Party to extend to the investors of the other Party the benefits of any treatment resulting from:

(a) an international agreement for the avoidance of double taxation or other international agreements or arrangements relating wholly or mainly to taxation; or

(b) measures providing for the recognition of qualifications, licences or prudential measures as provided for in Article VII of the GATS or its Annex on Financial Services.

4. For greater certainty, the "treatment" referred to in paragraph 1 does not include dispute settlement procedures provided for in other international investment treaties and other trade agreements.

5. The substantive provisions in other international investment or trade agreements do not in themselves constitute "treatment" as referred to in paragraph 1 and thus cannot give rise to a breach of this Article. However, measures applied pursuant to such provisions can constitute "treatment" as referred to in paragraph 1 and thus give rise to a breach of this Article.

ARTICLE 2.5

Treatment of investors and of covered investments

1. Each Party shall accord to covered investments and to investors of the other Party with respect to their covered investments fair and equitable treatment and full protection and security in accordance with paragraphs 2 to 5.

2. A Party breaches the obligation of fair and equitable treatment referred to in paragraph 1 through measures or series of measures that constitute:

- (a) denial of justice in criminal, civil or administrative proceedings¹;
- (b) fundamental disregard of due process, including a fundamental breach of transparency, in judicial and administrative proceedings;
- (c) manifest arbitrariness²;
- (d) targeted discrimination on manifestly wrongful grounds, such as gender, race or religious belief; or
- (e) harassment, coercion, abuse of power or corruptive practices.

3. When applying the above fair and equitable treatment obligations, a tribunal may take into account whether a Party made a specific representation to an investor to induce a covered investment, which created a legitimate expectation upon which that investor relied in deciding to make or maintain a covered investment, and which that Party subsequently frustrated. The mere fact that a Party takes or fails to take an action that may be inconsistent with an investor's expectations does not constitute a breach of this Article, even if there is loss or damage to the covered investment as a result.

² A measure is manifestly arbitrary if it is evident that the measure is not rationally connected to a legitimate policy objective, or if a measure is based on prejudice or bias rather than on reason or fact.

4. For greater certainty, the term "full protection and security" refers to the Party's obligations to take such measures as may be reasonably necessary to ensure the physical protection and security of covered investments and of investors with respect to their covered investments.

5. A determination that there has been a breach of another provision of this Agreement, or of any other international agreement, does not in itself establish that there has been a breach of this Article.

ARTICLE 2.6

Compensation for losses

1. Investors of a Party whose covered investments suffer losses owing to war or other armed conflict, revolution, a state of national emergency, revolt, insurrection or riot in the territory of the other Party shall be accorded by that Party, with respect to restitution, indemnification, compensation or other form of settlement, treatment no less favourable than that accorded by that Party to its own investors or to the investors of any third country, whichever is more favourable to the investors.

2. Without prejudice to paragraph 1, investors of a Party who, in any of the situations referred to in that paragraph, suffer losses in the territory of the other Party shall be accorded adequate restitution or compensation by the other Party¹, if these losses result from:

- (a) requisitioning of their covered investment or a part thereof by the latter's armed forces or authorities; or
- (b) destruction of their covered investment or a part thereof by the latter's armed forces or authorities, which was not required by the necessity of the situation.

ARTICLE 2.7

Expropriation

1. A Party shall not nationalise or expropriate a covered investment either directly or indirectly through measures having an effect equivalent to nationalisation or expropriation (hereinafter referred to as "expropriation") except:

- (a) for a public purpose²;
- (b) under due process of law;

¹ For greater certainty, when a Party provides restitution or compensation under this paragraph, the value shall not exceed the loss suffered by the investor as a result of the intervention by the armed forces or authorities of that Party.

² The Parties acknowledge that the public purpose concept may be referred to in their law through terms such as "public necessity", "public interest" or "public use".

- (c) in a non-discriminatory manner; and
- (d) against payment of prompt, adequate and effective compensation¹.

This paragraph shall be interpreted in accordance with Annex 2-A (Expropriation).

2. The compensation referred to in paragraph 1 shall amount to the fair market value of the investment at the time immediately before the expropriation or the impending expropriation became known, whichever is earlier.

The determination of the fair market value of an investment shall be based on the principles and criteria recognised in international financial standards, as appropriate.

3. The compensation referred to in paragraph 1 shall also include interest at a normal commercial rate from the date of expropriation until the date of payment and shall, in order to be effective for the investor, be paid and made transferable, without delay in a freely convertible currency in accordance with Article 2.8.

4. Notwithstanding paragraphs 1, 2, and 3, if Indonesia is the expropriating Party, any measure of direct expropriation relating to land shall be:

- (a) for a public purpose in accordance with the applicable Indonesian laws and regulations²; and

¹ The Parties understand that there may be legal and administrative processes that need to be observed before payment can be made.

² The applicable laws and regulations are, among others, Indonesia's Law No. 2 of 2012 on Land Acquisition for Development for the Public Interest and Government Regulation No. 19 of 2021 Regulating Implementation of Land Acquisition for Development for the Public Interest, as at the date of entry into force of this Agreement.

(b) upon payment of compensation equivalent to the market value in accordance with the applicable Indonesian laws and regulations.

5. The investor affected shall have a right, under the law of the expropriating Party, to prompt review of its claim and of the valuation of its investment, by a judicial or other independent authority of that Party, in accordance with the principles set out in this Article.

6. This Article does not apply to the issuance of compulsory licenses granted in relation to intellectual property rights in accordance with the TRIPS Agreement, or to the revocation¹, limitation or creation of intellectual property rights to the extent that such revocation, limitation or creation is consistent with Chapter 12 (Intellectual Property) of the Comprehensive Economic Partnership Agreement and the TRIPS Agreement.

ARTICLE 2.8

Transfers

1. Each Party shall permit all transfers relating to a covered investment to be made in a freely convertible currency, without restriction or delay and at the market rate of exchange prevailing on the date of transfer with regard to the currency to be transferred. Such transfers include:

(a) contributions to capital, such as principal and additional funds to maintain, develop or increase the investment;

¹ For greater certainty, the term "revocation" of intellectual property rights includes the cancellation or nullification of those rights, and the term "limitation" of intellectual property rights includes exceptions to those rights.

- (b) profits, dividends, capital gains and other returns, proceeds from the sale of all or any part of the investment or from the partial or complete liquidation of the investment;
- (c) interest, royalty payments, management fees, and technical assistance and other fees;
- (d) payments made under a contract entered into by the investor, or its investment, including payments made pursuant to a loan agreement;
- (e) earnings and other remuneration of personnel engaged from abroad and working in connection with an investment;
- (f) payments made pursuant to Articles 2.6 and 2.7; and
- (g) payments of damages pursuant to an award issued by a tribunal.

2. Neither Party may require its investors to transfer, or penalise its investors for failing to transfer, the income, earnings, profits or other amounts derived from, or attributable to, investments in the territory of the other Party.

3. This Article shall not be construed as preventing a Party from making returns in kind relating to a covered investment, which are subject to a written agreement between that Party and a covered investment or an investor of the other Party, as authorised or specified in that agreement, or from restricting transfers of returns in kind in circumstances where it could otherwise restrict such transfers under this Agreement.

ARTICLE 2.9

Subrogation

1. If a Party, or an agency of a Party, makes a payment to an investor of that Party under a guarantee or contract of insurance or other form of indemnity it has granted on non-commercial risk in respect of a covered investment, the other Party shall recognise the subrogation or transfer of any rights or assignment of any claim of the investor under this Agreement in respect of the covered investment. The investor shall not, unless authorised by the Party or the agency making the payment, pursue those rights against the other Party.
2. The subrogated or transferred right or assigned claim shall not be greater than the original right or claim of the investor. The recognition of the subrogation referred to in paragraph 1 shall not be construed as implying recognition of the merits of any claim or the amount of damages arising therefrom.

CHAPTER 3

MEDIATION MECHANISM FOR INVESTOR-TO-STATE DISPUTES

ARTICLE 3.1

Objective and scope

1. The objective of the mediation mechanism provided for in this Chapter is to facilitate the finding of mutually agreed solutions through a comprehensive and expeditious procedure with the assistance of a mediator.
2. The mediation mechanism referred to in paragraph 1 applies to disputes between an investor of a Party and the other Party concerning the application of this Agreement (hereinafter referred to as "disputing parties").
3. Recourse to mediation is voluntary and without prejudice to the legal position of either disputing party.

ARTICLE 3.2

Initiation of the procedure

1. Either disputing party may, at any time, request the commencement of a mediation procedure. Such request shall be addressed to the other disputing party in writing, with a copy to the home State of the investor, for information. Where the request is addressed to the Union, the Union may involve one or several Member States in the mediation, as appropriate.
2. The party to which such request is addressed shall give sympathetic consideration to the request and accept or reject it in writing within 30 days after the date of its receipt.

ARTICLE 3.3

Selection of the mediator

1. If both disputing parties agree to a mediation procedure, a mediator shall be selected in accordance with the procedure set out in paragraphs 2 and 3. The disputing parties shall endeavour to agree on a mediator within 15 days from the date of receipt of the reply to the request.
2. The Committee shall, upon the entry into force of this Agreement, establish a list of six individuals, of high moral character and recognised competence in the fields of law, commerce, industry or finance, who may be relied upon to exercise independent judgment and who are willing and able to serve as mediators.

3. The mediator shall be appointed by agreement of the disputing parties from the list established pursuant to paragraph 2, unless otherwise agreed. In the absence of an agreement on the choice of the mediator, the disputing parties may jointly request the Secretary General of the Permanent Court of Arbitration to appoint a mediator from that list or, in the absence of a list, from individuals proposed by either Party.
4. A mediator shall not be a national of either Party, unless the disputing parties agree otherwise.
5. The mediator shall assist, in an impartial and transparent manner, the disputing parties in reaching a mutually agreed solution.

ARTICLE 3.4

Rules of the mediation procedure

1. Within 10 days after the appointment of the mediator, the disputing party having invoked the mediation procedure shall present, in writing, a detailed description of the problem to the mediator and to the other disputing party. Within 20 days after the date of delivery of this submission, the other disputing party may provide, in writing, its comments to the description of the problem. Either disputing party may include in its description or comments any information that it deems relevant.

2. The mediator may decide on the most appropriate way of bringing clarity to the measure concerned. In particular, the mediator may organise meetings between the disputing parties, consult the disputing parties jointly or individually, seek the assistance of or consult with relevant experts and stakeholders and provide any additional support requested by the disputing parties. However, before seeking the assistance of or consulting with relevant experts and stakeholders, the mediator shall consult with the disputing parties.
3. The mediator may offer advice and propose a solution for the consideration of the disputing parties which may accept or reject the proposed solution or may agree on a different solution. However, the mediator shall not advise or give comments on the consistency of the measure at issue with this Agreement.
4. The procedure shall take place in the territory of the Party concerned, or by mutual agreement in any other location or by any other means.
5. The disputing parties shall endeavour to reach a mutually agreed solution within 60 days after the date of the appointment of the mediator. Pending a final agreement, the disputing parties may consider possible interim solutions.
6. Mutually agreed solutions shall be made publicly available. However, the version disclosed to the public may not contain any information that a disputing party has designated as confidential.
7. The procedure shall be terminated:
 - (a) by the adoption of a mutually agreed solution by the disputing parties, on the date of adoption;

- (b) by a written declaration of the mediator, after consultation with the disputing parties, that further efforts at mediation would be to no avail; or
- (c) by written notice of a disputing party.

ARTICLE 3.5

Implementation of a mutually agreed solution

1. Where a solution has been agreed, each disputing party shall take the measures necessary to implement the mutually agreed solution within the agreed timeframe.
2. The implementing disputing party shall inform the other disputing party in writing of any steps or measures taken to implement the mutually agreed solution.
3. On request of the disputing parties, the mediator shall issue to the disputing parties, in writing, a draft factual report, providing a brief summary of:
 - (a) the measure at issue in these procedures;
 - (b) the procedures followed; and
 - (c) any mutually agreed solution reached as the final outcome of these procedures, including possible interim solutions.

4. The mediator shall provide the disputing parties 15 days to comment on the draft report. After considering the comments of the disputing parties submitted within the period, the mediator shall submit, in writing, a final factual report to the disputing parties within 15 days. The factual report shall not include any interpretation of this Agreement.

ARTICLE 3.6

Relationship to dispute settlement

1. The procedure under this mediation mechanism is not intended to serve as a basis for dispute settlement procedures under this Agreement or another agreement. A disputing party shall not rely on or introduce as evidence in such dispute settlement procedures, nor shall any adjudicative body take into consideration:

- (a) positions taken by a disputing party in the course of the mediation procedure;
- (b) the fact that a disputing party has indicated its willingness to accept a solution to the measure subject to mediation; or
- (c) advice given or proposals made by the mediator.

2. The mediation mechanism is without prejudice to the rights and obligations of the Parties under Chapter 4 (Dispute Settlement between the Parties).

3. Unless the disputing parties agree otherwise, all steps of the procedure, including any advice or proposed solution, shall be confidential. However, any disputing party may disclose to the public that mediation is taking place.

ARTICLE 3.7

Time limits

Any time limit referred to in this Chapter may be modified by mutual agreement between the disputing parties.

ARTICLE 3.8

Costs

1. Each disputing party shall bear its own expenses deriving from its participation in the mediation procedure.
2. The disputing parties shall share jointly and equally the expenses deriving from organisational matters, including the remuneration and expenses of the mediator.

2. A Party shall seek consultations by means of a written request, including electronically, delivered to the other Party identifying the measure at issue and the covered provisions that it considers applicable.
3. The Party to which the request for consultations is made shall reply to that request promptly, but no later than 10 days after the date of its receipt. Unless the Parties agree otherwise, consultations shall be held within 30 days after the date of receipt of the request and take place in the territory of the Party to which the request is made. The consultations shall be deemed concluded within 60 days after the date of receipt of the request, unless the Parties agree to continue consultations.

4. Consultations on matters which the Party seeking consultations considers to be of urgency, including those regarding perishable goods or seasonal goods or services, shall be held within 20 days after the date of receipt of the request. The consultations shall be deemed concluded within those 20 days, unless the Parties agree to continue consultations.

5. During consultations each Party shall provide sufficient factual information so as to allow a complete examination of the manner in which the measure at issue could affect the application of this Agreement. Each Party shall endeavour to ensure the participation of personnel of its competent governmental authorities who have expertise in the matter subject to the consultations.

6. Consultations, including all information disclosed and positions taken by the Parties during consultations, shall be confidential, and without prejudice to the rights of either Party in any further proceedings.

SECTION C

PANEL PROCEDURES

ARTICLE 4.5

Initiation of panel procedures

1. The Party that sought consultations pursuant to Article 4.4 may request the establishment of a panel if:
 - (a) the Party to which the request is made pursuant to Article 4.4(3) does not respond to the request for consultations within 10 days after the date of its receipt;
 - (b) the consultations are not held within the time periods set out Article 4.4(3) or 4.4(4) respectively;
 - (c) the Parties agree not to have consultations; or
 - (d) the consultations have been concluded and no mutually agreed solution has been reached.
2. The request for the establishment of a panel shall be made by means of a written request, including electronically, delivered to the other Party. The complaining Party shall identify the measure at issue in its request and explain how that measure constitutes a breach of the covered provisions in a manner sufficient to present the legal basis for the complaint clearly.

3. If a request is made pursuant to paragraph 1, a panel shall be established in accordance with Article 4.6.

4. The Committee may decide, if it deems necessary and appropriate, to entrust an external body with assisting panels under this Chapter, including providing administrative and legal support¹.

ARTICLE 4.6

Establishment of a panel

1. A panel shall consist of three panellists.

2. Within 10 days after the date of receipt by the Party complained against of the written request, including electronically, for the establishment of a panel, the Parties shall consult with a view to agreeing on the composition of the panel.

3. If the Parties do not agree on the composition of the panel within the time period set out in paragraph 2, each Party shall, within five days from the expiry of the time period set out in paragraph 2, appoint a panellist from the sub-list of that Party established pursuant to Article 4.7.

¹ This shall cover the provision of research assistance and expertise for panellists on legal questions throughout the dispute settlement process.

4. If a Party does not appoint a panellist from its sub-list within the time period provided for in paragraph 3, the co-chair of the Committee from the complaining Party shall, within five days after the expiry of that time period, select by lot the panellist from the sub-list of that Party. The co-chair of the Committee from the complaining Party may delegate such selection by lot of the panellist.
5. If the Parties do not agree on the chairperson of the panel within the time period established in paragraph 2, the co-chair of the Committee from the complaining Party shall, within five days after the expiry of that time period, select by lot the chairperson of the panel from the sub-list of chairpersons established pursuant to Article 4.7. The co-chair of the Committee from the complaining Party may delegate such selection by lot of the chairperson of the panel.
6. The panel shall be deemed to be established 15 days after the three selected panellists have accepted their appointment in accordance with Rule 6 of Annex 4-A (Rules of Procedure), unless the Parties agree otherwise.
7. If an individual selected to serve as a panellist is not available or does not accept their appointment within the time period set out in Rule 6 of Annex 4-A (Rules of Procedure), a new individual shall be selected in accordance with the same selection method used for the selection of the individual who was not available or did not accept the appointment.
8. If the list provided for in Article 4.7 has not been established or if a sub-list does not contain any available individual, at the time a selection by lot is to be made pursuant to paragraphs 4 or 5, the panellists shall be drawn by lot from the individuals who have been formally proposed by one Party or both Parties in accordance with Annex 4-A (Rules of Procedure) within five days after the expiry of the time period set out in paragraph 2 or after the confirmation that no individual is available, as the case may be.

ARTICLE 4.7

List of panellists

1. The Committee shall, no later than six months after the date of entry into force of this Agreement, adopt a decision to establish a list of at least 15 individuals who are willing and able to serve as panellists. The list shall be composed of three sub-lists:
 - (a) one sub-list of individuals established on the basis of proposals by the Union;
 - (b) one sub-list of individuals established on the basis of proposals by Indonesia; and
 - (c) one sub-list of individuals that are not nationals of either Party and who shall serve as chairperson to the panel.
2. Each sub-list shall include at least five individuals. The Committee shall ensure that each sub-list is always maintained at this minimum number of individuals.
3. The Committee may establish additional lists of individuals with expertise in specific sectors covered by this Agreement. Subject to the agreement of the Parties, such additional lists shall be used to compose the panel in accordance with the procedure set out in Article 4.6.

ARTICLE 4.8

Requirements for panellists

1. Each panellist shall:

2. The chairperson shall also have experience in dispute settlement procedures.
3. In view of the subject-matter of a particular dispute, the Parties may agree to derogate from the requirements listed in point (a) of paragraph 1.

¹ For greater certainty, the fact that a person receives an income from the government of a Party, was formerly employed by the government of a Party or has a family relationship with a government official of a Party is not in itself a reason to be considered as being affiliated with that Party.

ARTICLE 4.9

Functions of the panel

The panel:

- (a) shall make an objective assessment of the matter before it, including an objective assessment of the facts of the case and the applicability of and conformity with the covered provisions;

1. Unless the Parties agree otherwise within five days after the date of establishment of the panel, the terms of reference of the panel shall be:

"to examine, in the light of the relevant provisions of the Investment Protection Agreement between the Republic of Indonesia and the European Union (hereinafter "the Agreement"), cited by the Parties, the matter referred to in the request for the establishment of the panel and to make findings on the conformity of the measure at issue with the provisions of the Agreement referred to in Article 4.2 of the Agreement and to deliver a report in accordance with Articles 4.12 and 4.13 of the Agreement."

1. If a Party so requests, the panel shall decide, within 10 days after its establishment, whether the dispute concerns matters of urgency.

2. If the Panel decides that the dispute concerns matters of urgency, it shall, after consulting the Parties, shorten the applicable time periods set out in Section C of this Chapter, except for the time periods set out in Articles 4.6 and 4.10.

ARTICLE 4.12

Interim report

1. The panel shall deliver an interim report to the Parties, to the extent practicable within 90 days after the date of establishment of the panel. If the panel considers that this deadline cannot be met, the chairperson of the panel shall notify the Parties in writing, including electronically, stating the reasons for the delay and the date on which the panel plans to deliver its interim report. The panel should, under no circumstances, deliver its interim report later than 120 days after the date of establishment of the panel. If the complaining Party chooses to deliver a second written submission pursuant to Rule 11 of Annex 4-A (Rules of Procedure), the time periods set out in this paragraph shall be extended by 30 days.

2. Each Party may deliver to the panel a written request, including electronically, to review precise aspects of the interim report within 10 days after its receipt. A Party may comment on the other Party's request within six days after the delivery of that request.

If the panel considers that this deadline cannot be met, the chairperson of the panel shall notify the Parties in writing, including electronically, stating the reasons for the delay and the date on which the panel plans to deliver its final report. The panel should, under no circumstances, deliver its final report later than 150 days after the date of establishment of the panel. If the complaining Party chooses to deliver a second written submission pursuant to Rule 11 of Annex 4-A (Rules of Procedure), the time periods set out in this paragraph shall be extended by 30 days.
2. The final report shall include a discussion of any written request, including electronically, made by a Party on the interim report, and clearly address the comments of the Parties.

ARTICLE 4.14

Compliance measures

1. The Party complained against shall take any measure necessary to comply promptly with the findings and conclusions in the final report in order to bring itself in compliance with the covered provisions.

2. The Party complained against shall, no later than 30 days after the receipt of the final report, deliver a notification to the complaining Party of the measures which it has taken or which it envisages to take to comply.

ARTICLE 4.15

Reasonable period of time

1. If immediate compliance is not possible, the Party complained against shall, no later than 30 days after the receipt of the final report, deliver a notification to the complaining Party of the length of the reasonable period of time it will require for compliance. The Parties shall endeavour to agree on the length of the reasonable period of time to comply with the final report.

2. If the Parties have not agreed on the length of the reasonable period of time, the complaining Party may, at the earliest 20 days after the receipt of the notification referred to in paragraph 1, request in writing, including electronically, the original panel to determine the length of the reasonable period of time. The panel shall deliver its decision to the Parties within 30 days after the date of receipt of the request.

4. The Parties may agree to extend the reasonable period of time.

ARTICLE 4.16

1. The Party complained against shall, no later than at the date of expiry of the reasonable period of time, deliver a notification to the complaining Party of any measure that it has taken to comply with the final report.
2. If the Parties disagree on the existence or the consistency with the covered provisions of any measure taken to comply, the complaining Party may deliver a written request, including electronically, to the original panel to decide on the matter. The request shall identify any measure at issue and explain how that measure constitutes a breach of the covered provisions in a manner sufficient to present the legal basis for the complaint clearly. The panel shall deliver its decision to the Parties within 46 days after the date of receipt of the request.

ARTICLE 4.17

Temporary remedies

1. The Party complained against shall, upon request of, and after consultations with, the complaining Party, present an offer for temporary compensation if:
 - (a) the Party complained against delivers a notification to the complaining Party that it is not possible to comply with the final report;

- (b) the Party complained against fails to deliver a notification of any measure taken to comply within the deadline referred to in Article 4.14 or before the date of expiry of the reasonable period of time; or

The notification shall specify such measures.

3. The complaining Party may take such measures at the earliest 20 days after the date of delivery of the notification referred to in paragraph 2, unless the Party complained against made a request pursuant to paragraph 5.
4. The appropriate measures shall not exceed the level equivalent to the nullification or impairment caused by the violation.

5. If the Party complained against considers that the notified measures exceed the level equivalent to the nullification or impairment caused by the violation, it may deliver a written request, including electronically, to the original panel before the expiry of the 20-day period set out in paragraph 3 to decide on the matter. The panel shall deliver its decision on the level of the measures to the Parties within 30 days after the date of the request. The measures shall not be taken until the panel has delivered its decision. The measures shall be consistent with that decision.

6. The appropriate measures or the compensation referred to in this Article shall be temporary and shall not be applied after:

- (a) the Parties have reached a mutually agreed solution pursuant to Article 4.33;
- (b) the Parties have agreed that the measure taken to comply brings the Party complained against into conformity with the covered provisions; or
- (c) any measure taken to comply which the panel has found to be inconsistent with the covered provisions has been withdrawn or amended so as to bring the Party complained against into conformity with those provisions.

ARTICLE 4.18

Review of any measure taken to comply after the adoption of temporary remedies

1. The Party complained against shall deliver a notification to the complaining Party of any measure it has taken to comply following the appropriate measures or following the application of temporary compensation, as the case may be. With the exception of cases pursuant to paragraph 2, the complaining Party shall terminate the appropriate measures within 30 days after the date of receipt of the notification. In cases where compensation has been applied, and with the exception of cases pursuant to paragraph 2, the Party complained against may terminate the application of such compensation within 30 days after the date of receipt of its notification that it has complied.

The panel shall deliver its decision to the Parties within 46 days after the date of receipt of the request. If the panel finds that the measure taken to comply is in conformity with the covered provisions, the appropriate measures or compensation, as the case may be, shall be terminated. When relevant, the complaining Party shall adjust the level of the appropriate measures or of compensation in light of the panel decision.

3. If the Party complained against considers that the level of the appropriate measures implemented by the complaining Party exceeds the level equivalent to the nullification or impairment caused by the violation, it may deliver a written request, including electronically, to the original panel to decide on the matter.

ARTICLE 4.19

If during a dispute settlement procedure, a panellist is unable to participate, withdraws or needs to be replaced because he or she does not comply with the requirements of Annex 4-B (Code of Conduct for Panellists and Mediators), the procedure provided for in Article 4.6 applies. The time period for the delivery of the report or decision of the panel shall be extended for the time necessary for the appointment of the new panellist.

ARTICLE 4.20

If a Party does not request the resumption of the panel's work at the expiry of the suspension period, the authority of the panel shall lapse and the dispute settlement procedure shall be terminated.
3. If the work of the panel is suspended, the relevant time periods set out in Section C of this Chapter shall be extended by the same period of time for which the work of the panel was suspended.

ARTICLE 4.22

2. Once a Party has selected the forum and initiated dispute settlement procedures under Section C of this Chapter or under another international agreement, the Party shall not initiate dispute settlement procedures under any other agreement with respect to the particular measure referred to in paragraph 1, unless the forum selected first fails to make findings for procedural or jurisdictional reasons.

Denial of benefits

1. A Party may deny the benefits of this Agreement to an investor of the other Party or to a covered investment if the denying Party adopts or maintains measures related to the maintenance of international peace and security, including measures to address serious human rights violations and abuses, which:

- (a) prohibit transactions with that investor or covered investment; or
- (b) would be violated or circumvented if the benefits of this Agreement were accorded to that investor or covered investment, including where the measures prohibit transactions with a natural or juridical person who owns or controls either of them.

ARTICLE 5.2

General exceptions

1. Subject to the requirement that such measures are not applied in a manner which would constitute a means of arbitrary or unjustifiable discrimination between countries where like conditions prevail, or a disguised restriction on covered investment, nothing in Articles 2.3, 2.4 and 2.8 shall be construed to prevent the adoption or enforcement by either Party of measures:
 - (a) necessary to protect public security¹ or public morals or to maintain public order²;
 - (b) necessary to protect human, animal or plant life or health;

(iii) safety.

2. For greater certainty, the Parties understand that:

- (a) the measures referred to in point (b) of Article XX of GATT 1994 and in point (b) of paragraph 1 of this Article include environmental measures, which are necessary to protect human, animal or plant life or health; and
- (b) point (g) of Article XX of GATT 1994 applies to measures relating to the conservation of living and non-living exhaustible natural resources.

3. For greater certainty, the Parties understand that this Article can only be invoked with respect to measures that are otherwise inconsistent with the provisions of the Articles referred to in paragraph 1.

ARTICLE 5.3

Prudential carve-out

1. Nothing in this Agreement shall prevent a Party from adopting or maintaining measures for prudential reasons, such as:

- (a) the protection of investors, depositors, policy-holders or persons to whom a fiduciary duty is owed by a financial service supplier; or

(b) ensuring the integrity and stability of a Party's financial system.

2. Where the measures referred to in paragraph 1 do not conform to the other provisions of this Agreement, they shall not be used as a means of avoiding a Party's commitments or obligations under such provisions.

3. Nothing in this Agreement shall be construed to require a Party to disclose information relating to the affairs and accounts of individual consumers or any confidential or proprietary information in the possession of public entities.

ARTICLE 5.4

Security exceptions

Nothing in this Agreement shall be construed:

(a) to require a Party to furnish or allow access to any information the disclosure of which it considers contrary to its essential security interests;

- (b) to prevent a Party from taking any action which it considers necessary for the protection of its essential security interests:
 - (i) connected to the production of or traffic in arms, ammunition and implements of war and to such traffic and transactions in other goods and materials, services and technology, and to economic activities, carried out directly or indirectly for the purpose of supplying a military establishment;
 - (ii) relating to fissionable and fusionable materials or the materials from which they are derived; or
 - (iii) taken in time of war or other emergency in international relations; or
- (c) to prevent a Party from taking any action in pursuance of its obligations under the Charter of the United Nations signed in San Francisco on 26 June 1945 for the purpose of maintaining international peace and security.

ARTICLE 5.5

Taxation

1. For the purposes of this Article, the following definitions apply:
 - (a) "residence" means residence for tax purposes; and

- (b) "tax convention" means a convention for the avoidance of double taxation or any other international agreement or arrangement relating wholly or mainly to taxation to which the Union or any of its Member States or Indonesia is party.

A "tax" and a "taxation measure" do not include a customs duty.

2. Each Party retains its right to regulate taxation measures, without prejudice to its rights and obligations under this Agreement.
3. Nothing in this Agreement shall affect the rights and obligations of either Indonesia or the Union or any of its Member States, under any tax convention. In the event of any inconsistency between this Agreement and any such tax convention, that tax convention shall prevail to the extent of the inconsistency.
4. Article 2.4 shall not apply to an advantage accorded by a Party pursuant to a tax convention. For the avoidance of doubt, nothing in this Agreement shall oblige a Party to extend to the other Party the benefit of any treatment, preference or privilege arising from any existing or future tax convention by which the Party is bound.

5. Subject to the requirement that taxation measures are not applied in a manner which would constitute a means of arbitrary or unjustifiable discrimination between countries where like conditions prevail, or a disguised restriction on trade and investment, nothing in this Agreement shall be construed to prevent a Party from adopting, maintaining or enforcing any measure which:

(a) aims at ensuring the equitable or effective¹ imposition or collection of direct taxes;

¹ Measures that are aimed at ensuring the equitable or effective imposition or collection of direct taxes include measures taken by a Party under its taxation system which:

- (i) apply to non-resident investors and service suppliers in recognition of the fact that the tax obligation of non-residents is determined with respect to taxable items sourced or located in the Party's territory;
- (ii) apply to non-residents in order to ensure the imposition or collection of taxes in the Party's territory;
- (iii) apply to non-residents or residents in order to prevent the avoidance or evasion of taxes, including compliance measures;
- (iv) apply to consumers of services supplied in or from the territory of the other Party in order to ensure the imposition or collection of taxes on such consumers derived from sources in the Party's territory;
- (v) distinguish investors and service suppliers subject to tax on worldwide taxable items from other investors and service suppliers, in recognition of the difference in the nature of the tax base between them; or
- (vi) determine, allocate or apportion income, profit, gain, loss, deduction or credit of resident persons or branches, or between related persons or branches of the same person, in order to safeguard the Party's tax base.

Tax terms or concepts in this paragraph and this footnote are determined according to tax definitions and concepts, or equivalent or similar definitions and concepts, under the law of the Party taking the measure.

- (b) aims at preventing the avoidance or evasion of taxes pursuant to the provisions of any tax convention or its fiscal legislation; or
- (c) distinguishes between taxpayers, who are not in the same situation, in particular with regard to their place of residence or with regard to the place where their capital is invested.

ARTICLE 5.6

Temporary safeguard measures

In exceptional circumstances of serious difficulties for the operation of economic and monetary policies, in the case of Indonesia, or for the economic and monetary union, in the case of the Union, or threat thereof, the Party concerned may adopt or maintain safeguard measures with regard to capital movements, payments or transfers for a period not exceeding six months¹. Such measures must be strictly necessary to address such difficulties.

¹ For greater certainty, such measures can be renewed for additional periods of six months, provided that it remains strictly necessary under the current circumstances.

ARTICLE 5.7

Restrictions in case of balance-of-payments or external financial difficulties

1. Where a Party experiences serious balance-of-payments or external financial difficulties, or a threat thereof, it may adopt or maintain restrictive measures with regard to capital movements, payments or transfers¹.
2. The measures referred to in paragraph 1:
 - (a) shall be consistent with the Articles of Agreement of the International Monetary Fund, as applicable;
 - (b) shall not exceed what is necessary to deal with the circumstances described in paragraph 1;
 - (c) shall be temporary and shall be phased out progressively as the situation specified in paragraph 1 improves;
 - (d) shall avoid unnecessary damage to the commercial, economic and financial interests of the other Party; and
 - (e) shall not treat the other Party less favourably than a third country in like situations.

¹ In the case of the Union, such measures may be taken by a Member State of the Union in situations other than those referred to in Article 5.6, which affect the economy of that Member State. For greater certainty, serious balance-of-payments or external financial difficulties, or a threat thereof, may be caused, among other factors, by serious difficulties related to monetary or exchange rate policies, or threats thereof.

3. In the case of trade in goods, each Party may adopt restrictive measures in order to safeguard its external financial position or balance-of-payments. These measures shall be in accordance with the GATT 1994 and the Understanding on the Balance of Payments provisions of the GATT 1994.

4. In the case of trade in services, each Party may adopt restrictive measures in order to safeguard its external financial position or balance-of-payments. These measures shall be in accordance with Article XII of the GATS.

5. A Party maintaining or having adopted measures referred to in paragraphs 1 and 2 shall promptly notify them to the other Party.

6. Where restrictions are adopted or maintained pursuant to this Article, consultations shall be held promptly in the Committee unless consultations are held in other fora. The consultations shall assess the balance-of-payments or external financial difficulty that led to the respective measures, taking into account, inter alia, such factors as:

- (a) the nature and extent of the difficulties;
- (b) the external economic and trading environment; and
- (c) alternative corrective measures which may be available.

The consultations shall address the compliance of any restrictive measures with paragraphs 1 and 2. All relevant findings of a statistical or factual nature presented by the IMF, where available, shall be accepted and conclusions shall take into account the assessment by the IMF of the balance-of-payments and the external financial situation of the Party concerned.

ARTICLE 5.8

Application of laws and regulations relating to capital movements, payments or transfers

The provisions of Article 2.8 shall not preclude a Party from applying its laws and regulations relating to:

- (a) bankruptcy, insolvency, the protection of the rights of creditors, bank recovery and resolution, or the prudential supervision of financial institutions;
- (b) issuing of, trading or dealing in financial instruments;
- (c) financial reporting or record keeping of capital movements, payments or transfers where necessary to assist law enforcement or financial regulatory authorities;
- (d) criminal or penal offences, deceptive or fraudulent practices;
- (e) ensuring compliance with orders or judgments in judicial or administrative proceedings; or
- (f) social security, public retirement or compulsory savings schemes.

Such laws and regulations shall not be applied in an arbitrary or discriminatory manner, or in a manner which constitutes a disguised restriction on capital movements, payments, or transfers.

ARTICLE 5.9

Disclosure of information

1. Nothing in this Agreement shall be construed to require a Party to make available confidential information, the disclosure of which would impede law enforcement, or otherwise be contrary to the public interest, or which would prejudice the legitimate commercial interests of particular enterprises, public or private, except where a panel requires such confidential information in dispute settlement proceedings under Chapter 4 (Dispute Settlement between the Parties). In such cases, the panel shall ensure that confidentiality is fully protected.
2. When a Party submits information to the Committee which is considered as confidential under its laws and regulations, the other Party shall treat that information as confidential, unless the submitting Party agrees otherwise.
