

CV form

Name of the person directly providing the service:.....

Previous experience practicing restorative justice for at least 5 years

Describe your experience in practicing restorative justice over the past 5 years

Previous experience as a trainer of restorative justice practice - at least three trainings in the last 2 years

Highlight the vital law practice training conducted by the expert in the last 2 years.

Previous experience in creating training related to restorative justice

Describe your own experience and add references to the created training. If a specific training cannot be shared due to copyright, add customer feedback and/or contact.

Previous experience in creating theoretical materials (manual, article, instruction, etc.) - at least two materials made in the last 3 years.

Describe your own experience and include references to work done.

Previous experience practicing restorative justice in intimate partner violence cases.

Describe your own experience in the cases referred to.

I confirm with my signature that the information provided is accurate.