

Annex II: Selection criteria form<sup>11</sup>

Applicants are requested to describe how they fulfil the selection criteria listed in this call.

Proven and relevant competence and experience in areas relevant to the Single European railway area (all applicants)	The Consumer Protection and Technical Regulatory Authority (TTJA) is Estonia's public authority acting as the Independent Charging Body for the railway sector, in accordance with Article 7 of Directive 2012/34/EU. TTJA is responsible for calculating the level of infrastructure access charges, ensuring compliance with EU railway legislation and the principles of transparency, non-discrimination and cost-reflectiveness. The Authority has extensive experience in: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• implementing the charging framework set out in Directive 2012/34/EU;</li> <li>• analysing cost data and determining the direct costs of train operations;</li> <li>• applying mark-up and performance schemes;</li> <li>• participating in working groups such as PRIME on charging and access conditions.</li> </ul> Through these activities, TTJA has built a proven competence in both the economic and procedural aspects of the Single European Railway Area.
Absence of circumstances that could give rise to a conflict of interest; please see Annex III for more information (individuals applying to be appointed in a personal capacity only)
Competence, experience and hierarchical level of the proposed representatives (organisations only)	Ms Ingrid Jakobson serves as an Analyst at the Consumer Protection and Technical Regulatory Authority (TTJA), acting as an expert and decision-maker responsible for the calculation and determination of railway infrastructure charges. She performs the full range of tasks associated with the Independent Charging Body under Article 7 of Directive 2012/34/EU.
Good knowledge of the English language allowing active participation in the discussions (individual applicants and organisations' representatives)	Ms Ingrid Jakobson possesses an excellent command of the English language, both spoken and written. She holds a Cambridge English Level 2 Certificate in ESOL International (Advanced), corresponding to C1 level under the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages (CEFR).

For individuals applying to be appointed as Type A members

Title: .....

Surname: .....

First name: .....

Nationality: .....

Professional title: .....

Date: .....

Signature .....

---

<sup>11</sup> This form must be filled in, signed and returned with the application.

For organisations applying to be appointed as Type C members

Name of the organisation<sup>12</sup>: Consumer Protection and Technical

Regulatory Authority

Surname of the representative proposed: Jakobson

First name of the representative proposed: Ingrid

Surname of the person applying on behalf of the organisation: Talving

First name of the person applying on behalf of the organisation: Kristi

Date: .....

Signature .....

---

<sup>12</sup> It is mandatory to use exactly the same name used when registering in the Transparency Register.