Free webinars on the ILO normative action

The International Labour Office presents its compliments to the governments of Member States of the International Labour Organization (ILO) and has the honour to invite their representatives to a series of free webinars on its normative action. The webinars are organized in the context of the International Labour Standards Academy and are scheduled to take place from 25 to 29 May 2026, from 11:00 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. (CEST), with interpretation services in English, French and Spanish. The aim of these webinars is to increase tripartite constituents capacity to engage with the ILO normative system in a world of work shaped by rapid changes.

The webinars will explore the following topics:

- * WEBINAR 1 on Monday, 25 May 2026: A century of ILO supervision.
- * WEBINAR 2 on Tuesday, 26 May 2026: Chemicals and the world of work.
- * WEBINAR 3 on Wednesday, 27 May 2026: Decent work in the platform economy.
- * WEBINAR 4 on Thursday, 28 May 2026: The future of reporting on ratified Conventions.
- WEBINAR 5 on Friday, 29 May 2026: Employment and decent work for peace and resilience (General Survey).

The webinars will feature members and former members of the ILO supervisory bodies, namely the Committee of Experts on the Application of Conventions and Recommendations and the Conference Committee on the Application of Standards, and subject-matter specialists from the ILO Secretariat. Details about the webinars are available in the information note attached (in English, French and Spanish) and in the .

Government representatives wishing to participate in these webinars and sharing their questions may do so by registering using . Questions regarding this event may be addressed directly to Ms Maura Miraglio (). The International Labour Office avails itself of this opportunity to renew to the governments of Member States of the ILO the assurances of its highest consideration.
