Copenhagen Life Science Summit

Life Science: A Catalyst for European Competitiveness

October 8-9 2025 | Copenhagen City Hall & Maersk Tower | Denmark

On the occasion of Denmark's EU Presidency 2025, we are pleased to invite you to Copenhagen Life Science Summit, a high-level gathering of key stakeholders from across the European health and life science ecosystem – including policymakers, academia, public health organisations, industry leaders and patient organisations from the EU27 and beyond. Together, we will explore how Europe can advance its position as a leading life science region – enhancing competitiveness and driving the development of more resilient and innovative health systems that deliver better outcomes for patients across Europe. Please join us for:

An evening reception at Copenhagen City Hall

Date: October 8 2025

Time: 18:00-20:00

Venue: Copenhagen City Hall, Raadhuspladsen 1, Copenhagen

We hope you will join us for this high-level gathering in the historic surroundings of Copenhagen City Hall, with participation of the Lord Mayor of Copenhagen, Lars Weiss and the Danish Minister of the Interior and Health, Sophie Løhde.

The high-level conference day at Maersk Tower

Date: October 9 2025

Time: 9:00-18:00

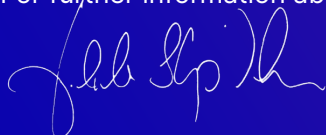

Venue: Maersk Tower, University of Copenhagen, Blegdamsvej 3B, Copenhagen

This high-level conference day will explore how the life science sector can contribute to Europe's global competitiveness—through innovation, research, health solutions, investment opportunities, and export growth. Discussions will focus on concrete initiatives on how life science can act as a strategic driver of growth and resilience, and how strengthened public-private collaboration can shape the future of health in Europe.
