Confirmation letter by The Estonian Association of Youth Workers
August 29, 2024

This is to confirm that we, The Estonian Association of Youth Workers, an Estonian organization, have agreed to be part of and have contributed to the development of the project "Empowering Youth Workers: Advancing Human Rights and Equal Treatment through Estonian-Icelandic Cooperation," being implemented by the Estonian Human Rights Centre in cooperation with the Icelandic organization Samtökin '78.

The Estonian Association of Youth Workers (EAYW) is a professional non-governmental organization representing both paid and volunteer youth workers. EAYW is dedicated to promoting youth work rooted in human rights values, emphasizing the importance of young people as active participants and equal partners in their youth work experiences. Additionally, we strive to foster the professional development of our members.

Cordially,

Kadi Bruus
Chairman of the Board
The Estonian Association of Youth Workers
