Introduction

The Ministry of Culture of the Republic of Indonesia will host the Culture, Heritage, Arts, Narratives, Diplomacy and Innovation
(CHANDI) SUMMIT

on 03-05 September 2025 in Bali, Indonesia.
This global forum aims to enhance dialogue,
encourage collaboration,
and develop innovation
in cultural policy, preservation of cultural heritage, and sustainable development. With the theme “Culture for the Future”, the CHANDI SUMMIT emphasizes that culture can be a unifying and relevant force in responding to the challenges of the 21st century. Culture can be a medium to promote peace, stability,
sustainable development,
and foster human creativity, especially amidst increasing global uncertainty and complexity.

CHANDI SUMMIT 2025 is also a strategic momentum to bring together world leaders, policy makers, academics, artists, and cultural actors from various countries to discuss the future direction of culture in an increasingly interconnected and dynamically developing world. This forum will be a platform for the exchange of ideas and experiences that can strengthen the role of culture in creating a harmonious, just and peaceful world.

The Ministry of Culture of the Republic of Indonesia warmly welcome all delegates to the CHANDI SUMMIT 2025 in Bali, and we are pleased to provide General Information containing CHANDI SUMMIT 2025 information and comprehensive details of administrative procedures, logistic, and requirements for all delegates to ensure an efficient event and visit in Bali, Indonesia.

Glimpse of Bali

Bali is a melting pot of diverse cultures and traditions, making it a unique destination for cultural exploration. The island is home to a harmonious blend of Hindu, Buddhist, and animist beliefs, resulting in a rich tapestry of rituals, ceremonies, and customs.

As Bali continues to evolve and embrace modernity, it is crucial to preserve and promote its cultural heritage. Efforts are being made by local communities, artists, and organizations to safeguard traditional arts, rituals, and customs.

Through initiatives such as sustainable architecture, energy-efficient designs, and the promotion of eco-friendly practices, the government strives to create spaces that harmoniously blend with Bali's natural surroundings while preserving the diverse cultural traditions that make the island so extraordinary. By prioritizing sustainability efforts, we ensure that future generations of Bali's inhabitants can continue to thrive in a vibrant, culturally rich environment.

CULTURE & TRADITIONS

Balinese Culture is a vibrant blend of Hinduism, Buddhism, and other beliefs, deeply rooted in traditions of art, music, dance, and religious rituals. Daily life is interwoven with religious practices, including offering, temple ceremonies, and a strong sense of community

CULINARY DELIGHTS

Known locally as nasi Bali, the Balinese version of nasi campur incorporates the island's local delicacies as well as their iconic spice blend, base genep. This spice blends together turmeric, ginger, galangal, shallots, candlenuts, garlic, chilli, lemongrass, lime leaves, and coriander seeds. This dish contains a scoop of rice along with the following. The other signature dishes of Bali are Sate Lilit and Ayam Betutu.
