Teema: [SUSPECTED SPAM] Invitation to speak at the Reykjavik Global Forum 2026

Dear Minister Pakosta,

Attached is a formal invitation letter from our Co-founder and Chair, Hanna Birna Kristjánsdóttir, inviting you to join us as a featured conversationist, speaking at the 9th Reykjavik Global Forum, taking place in Iceland on November 1617, 2026. The Forum is the annual flagship event of the Reykjavik Global community; a diverse, action-oriented network of trailblazing women leaders and their allies working to empower more women to attain and retain positions of power.

We greatly admire your work in championing equality and driving meaningful change, and we believe your voice would be invaluable to the Forum. Your commitment strongly aligns with our mission: empowering women to attain and retain positions of power, influence, and leadership across all sectors of society. We would be truly honored to have you join the Forum in this capacity.

On our website you can find further information about the Reykjavik Global Forum, including an overview of previous speakers as well as the videos from mainstage sessions in .

Please don't hesitate to let me know if you have any questions or need any further information.

Kind regards,
Sóley Jóhannsdóttir
