Invitation to support Naval Intermediate Command and Staff Course 2025

The National Defence Academy of Latvia (NDAL) and the Estonian Defence Forces have had a successful history of cooperation. Estonian subject matter experts have always ensured smooth execution of the course by providing highly professional lecturers for various military topics.

We would like to express our interest in further cooperation in the field of education. Therefore, we kindly request the Estonian Navy to support the Naval Intermediate Command and Staff Course (NICSC) in 2025. We would like to invite your experts to support the course by delivering the following subject:
