

December 4, 2024

Major General Indrek Sirel
Joint Headquarters of the Estonian Defense Forces
Junkentali 58
15007 TALLINN
ESTONIA

Dear General Sirel:

As I conclude my time as Commanding General, United States Army Europe and Africa, I would like to express my deepest appreciation for the unwavering alliance between our nations, and for the honor of serving alongside a trusted and valued ally like you.

I take immense pride in the unshakeable bond we have forged, and I am confident that our relationship will continue to thrive and evolve. Estonia's unwavering commitment to NATO is a cornerstone of our collective strength, and I am grateful for the trust, cooperation, and friendship we have shared throughout my tenure.

Please accept my sincerest thanks for your enduring friendship and partnership. It has been a privilege to serve alongside you. I extend my warmest wishes to you and the Estonian Land Forces for continued success, prosperity, and a bright future.

Sincerely,

Darryl A. Williams
General, U.S. Army
Commanding General,
United States Army
Europe and Africa

Thanks for your friendship
for a long time!

"Stoja Tjeter!"