Dear General Pekkari,

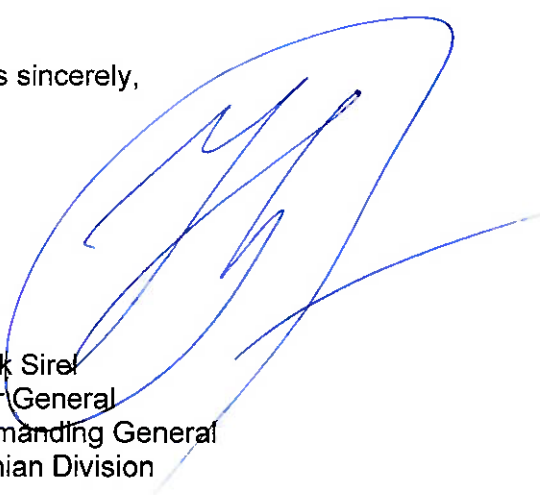

Please accept my sincerest congratulations on your appointment as Chief of the Swedish Army.

We are facing a great deal of uncertainty in security developments in Europe, and these are times that require cooperation. We do have many challenges facing us, but I am confident that we will solve them together. One can only live and survive thanks to good friends.

In this vein, it is my great honour to invite you to pay a visit to Estonia at the time most convenient to you. During your visit we can discuss our bilateral cooperation as well as other issues of mutual interest.

I wish you all the strength, energy, rigor and determination that is necessary to accomplish the tasks in front of you, and I am looking forward to working with you closely.

Yours sincerely,

Indrek Sirel
