

ADMINISTRATIVE NOTE

6TH GLOBAL CONFERENCE ON THE ELIMINATION OF CHILD LABOUR

MARRAKECH 2026

KINGDOM OF MOROCCO

The Government of the Kingdom of Morocco and the International Labour Organisation (ILO) are honoured to welcome you to the Sixth Global Conference on the Elimination of Child Labour.

The Conference will be held in Marrakech from 11 to 13 February 2026. It will bring together representatives of governments, employers' and workers' organisations from the 187 ILO member States, as well as representatives of civil society, regional and international organisations, the private sector and the academia.

This administrative note provides logistical and other practical information concerning the arrangements for this Conference. Further information will be communicated to all delegates via the Conference website.

Date and venue:

The Sixth Global Conference on the Elimination of Child Labour will be held from 11 to 13 February 2026 in Marrakech at the Palais des Congrès.

Format and agenda:

The main agenda of the Conference will alternate between high-level sessions and technical discussions addressing the most relevant issues related to the elimination of child labour, as identified during regional consultations.

It will be complemented by interactive sessions, accessible by registration only, aimed at fostering collaboration, knowledge sharing and the presentation of effective solutions.

A space dedicated to innovation will showcase creative approaches that have a measurable impact on the elimination of child labour. Finally, side events will be organised to promote dialogue, partnerships and advocacy.

The detailed programme of the Conference will be sent to all delegates and also posted on the website, along with all the necessary documentation: www.6thchildlabourconf.org

If you have any questions, please consult the website or contact coordination-6GC@emploi.gov.ma and coordination-6GC@ilo.org.

Languages:

Simultaneous interpretation will be provided in four languages: English, Spanish, French and Arabic. A subtitling service will also be available.

Registration:

Each participant must register online at the following link: <https://apply.6thchildlabourconf.org/>, no later than 10 January 2026.

If you have any questions, please contact logistics-6GC@emploi.gov.ma and logistics-6GC@ilo.org.

Accreditation/Registration:

After completing the registration form, each participant will receive a confirmation email from the conference organisers.

Badges can be collected from the Palais des Congrès (conference venue) from 9 February 2026.

Insurance:

The host country and the ILO do not provide insurance coverage for participants and accept no responsibility for any medical services required before, during or after the meeting.

Participants are therefore responsible for taking out insurance valid for the entire duration of the Conference and for the period of travel before leaving for Morocco.

Visas:

Participants in the Sixth Conference are invited to submit their visa applications to the Embassies and Consulates of the Kingdom of Morocco, accompanied by their letters of invitation.

Delegates from countries without Moroccan diplomatic representation may request visa confirmation letters at the airport from the organising committee.

Internal transport in Morocco:

The organising team will arrange transfers in Morocco between the international airport, the Palais des Congrès and other hotels in Marrakech. Delegates are requested to send details of their international flights to and from Morocco to the following address: transport-6GC@emploi.gov.ma.

International transport: arrivals and departures:

Each participant must organise their own international outbound and return travel to Morocco. Points of entry into Morocco can be Menara International Airport in Marrakech and Mohammed V International Airport in Casablanca.

Delegates arriving at either of these two international airports will be met by the organising team and accompanied to shuttle buses that will take them to their hotels. Please note that the travel time between Casablanca International Airport and Marrakech is at least 3 hours by road, covering a distance of approximately 230 km.

Accommodation:

In order to ensure that you are welcomed in the best possible conditions, a list of recommended hotels will be available on the website with preferential rates for conference participants.

Rooms are available at preferential rates until 13 February 2026. After this date, hotel rates will return to normal and will depend on availability.

You are therefore encouraged to confirm your reservation directly with the Hotel of your choice as soon as possible, and no later than 10 January 2026.

If you have any questions regarding accommodation, please contact the logistics coordination team at the following address: logistics-6GC@emploi.gov.ma or by telephone on 00 212 6 69 58 82 40 / 00 212 6 61 65 20 10.

Accessibility:

The conference venue will be accessible to people with reduced mobility. Arrangements will be made to facilitate participation for all.

Further information on the accessibility services available will be provided on the conference website.

Those with specific needs are invited to contact the organising team at coordination-6GC@emploi.gov.ma so that appropriate measures can be taken.

Practical information:

Touristic overview:

Between tradition and modernity, the ochre city of Marrakech offers a unique setting. This nickname comes from the red ochre colour of its buildings, ramparts, and many traditional houses, built with local soil.

Marrakech is one of Morocco's most iconic cities. It captivates visitors with its rich historical heritage, majestic palaces, bustling souks, and lush gardens, such as the Majorelle Garden.

The medina, a UNESCO World Heritage Site, offers an authentic immersion into the Moroccan way of life.

In the surrounding area, the Atlas Mountains reveal spectacular landscapes and picturesque villages.

Climate:

Marrakech enjoys a generally sunny and pleasant climate throughout the year. Winter temperatures remain comfortable during the day, with an average temperature in Marrakech of around 15°C (59°F) in February, and minimum and maximum temperatures ranging from 8°C (46°F) to 21°C (70°F).

Other information

- Telephone and internet:

To make calls from your mobile phone, don't forget to activate the 'International' option with your telephone operator. The network coverage in Morocco is generally very good.

You can buy a Moroccan SIM card on arrival, and you will also find top-up cards in all kiosks.

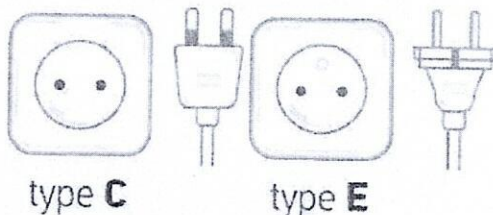

All hotels in Morocco generally have a broadband connection, and many establishments offer free Wi-Fi: restaurants, cafés, airports, etc.

- International dialling codes:

The country code for Morocco is 212. To make an international call from Morocco, dial 00 + country code + telephone number.

- Electricity supply:

Power sockets in Morocco are type C and E. The mains voltage is 220v.
