Seating arrangements for the plenary sittings and collection of badges for the 114th Session (2026) of the International Labour Conference

The International Labour Office presents its compliments to the Governments of Member States of the International Labour Organization (ILO) and Observer States invited to the 114th Session of the International Labour Conference (1-12 June 2026) and has the honour to provide them with information on the seating arrangements for the opening and regular plenary sittings of the Conference and the collection of badges.

Seating arrangements for the opening sitting at the Assembly Hall on Monday, 1 June at 11.00 a.m.

For the opening sitting on Monday, 1 June at 11 a.m. in the Assembly Hall at the Palais des Nations, eight seats per delegation will be allocated to ensure tripartite representation for all Member States participating in the Conference, i.e., four seats for governments (Ministers and Ambassadors included), two for Employer delegates and two for Worker delegates, as per the accreditations received by Saturday, 30 May at midday. As per the established practice, seats will be arranged in French alphabetical order. Requests for exceptions must be justified and submitted in writing to the Conference Secretariat (reloff@ilo.org) before they can be considered.

Regular plenary sittings at the Tempus building as of Wednesday, 3 June
The regular plenary sittings to discuss the reports of the Chairperson of the Governing Body and the Director-General will be held from Wednesday, 3 June to Wednesday, 10 June at the Tempus in the Palais des Nations. Eight seats will be reserved (with nameplate) for those countries that have registered speakers on that day, to ensure proper representation. Delegations who have no speakers registered on that particular day will be escorted by meeting room assistants to other free seats available in the room.

Registration and collection of badges

To enter the Conference premises, all participants, including Geneva-based delegates already in possession of a UN badge, must present a personalized badge with a photo, which must be worn visibly at all times. For information on badge collection, Governments are kindly referred to the , available on .

The International Labour Office thanks the Governments of Member States of the ILO and Observer States invited to the 114th Session of the International Labour Conference for their understanding and avails itself of this opportunity to renew to them the assurances of its highest consideration.
