Dear Minister,

I am pleased to invite you to join the World Economic Forum Leaders for European Growth and Competitiveness community, as well as its inaugural meeting, beginning with an opening dinner on 30 June 2025, followed by high-level sessions on 1 July 2025 at the Berlaymont in Brussels, Belgium.

Leaders for European Growth and Competitiveness is a high-level, multistakeholder initiative that brings together select leaders from EU institutions, national governments, business and expert organizations to advance Europe's growth agenda. The community will focus on four key enablers of competitiveness: promoting clean and competitive energy and industry; leveraging financial markets; enabling strategic alliances; and shaping the Intelligent Age.

Amid intensifying geo-economic competition, Europe's long-term competitiveness depends on a bold realignment of strategic priorities. This includes securing reliable, clean and affordable energy, accelerating innovation and transformative technologies, deepening capital markets and building new partnerships.

Addressing the structural challenges to growth demands coordinated leadership from both public and private sector leaders. Your leadership and engagement will be crucial to this shared effort.

I look forward to personally welcoming you in Brussels.

Yours sincerely,
