Dear President Kucina, dear Irēna,

On behalf of myself and the Supreme Court of Estonia, please accept our sincere gratitude for your warm congratulations on the occasion of Estonia's Independence Day.

Your thoughtful message and reflections on the importance of safeguarding democracy, fundamental rights, and the rule of law are deeply appreciated. In the current security environment, the role of courts in protecting constitutional values and democratic stability has indeed become ever more significant.

The Supreme Court of Estonia greatly values the close and constructive cooperation with the Constitutional Court of the Republic of Latvia. The dialogue between our courts and the exchange of perspectives are an important source of mutual support and inspiration.

We also look forward with great interest to our upcoming meetings and joint events, which will further strengthen our cooperation.

Once again, dear Irena, please accept our sincere thanks for your kind wishes.

Yours sincerely,
